

STUDY HOSPITALITY AT KIT/MTC

STUDYING CERTIFICATE II IN HOSPITALITY

Studying hospitality at KIT provide a pathway to employment in hospitality industries such as Hotels, Cafes & Restaurant

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Participate in work health and safety
- Work effectively with others
- Communication in the workplace
- Produce simple word processed documents
- Source and used information in the hospitality industry
- Show social and cultural diversity
- Provide customer information and assistance
- Serve food and beverage
- Prepare simple dishes
- Use hospitality skills effectively
- Used hygienic practices for food safety
- Prepare room for guest
- Basic safety training (Survival , Fire , First Aid)

THE KIT DIFFERENCE

- This course is delivered by KIT, taught to Australian standards and is subject to on-going quality assurance checks. It builds the same skills, knowledge and attitudes as an Australian equivalent course.
- Our dedicated staff are consistently up-skilled and trained by specialised short and long term Australian technical advisers.
- The KIT campus provides a friendly, safe and clean environment to learn in, with all the latest equipment for practical training.
- All students participate in relevant practical activities and learn work related technical skills.
- Students also learn core employability skills, computing skills and English language so that they are confident and work ready.

COURSE DURATION & FEES

- The Hospitality course is delivered over two semesters.
- Fees – $350.00

MORE INFORMATION

For more information about studying Business at KIT, please contact us by telephone on 75126516 or enquire in person at the KIT Administration Office between

8 am and 4 pm (Monday to Friday)